Dear Mr. Paterson,

I am a victim of potentially fatal hit and run crime. Therefore, I have a RIGHT and DUTY TO BRING MY OFFENDER TO JUSTICE. Otherwise, it is impossible to prevent hit and run crime. I have struggled to discharge my DUTY for seven years without any success. The following are the fundamental facts about this case, substantiated by the legal documents enclosed:

1. My offender was caught, but RCMP failed to charge him with hit and run crime, because, ICBC assumed the liability of the crime.
2. Even though, it is unlawful to provide insurance benefits to criminal offenders, ICBC paid - on behalf of my offender - the cost of my car he destroyed in the commission of the hit and run crime.
3. Furthermore, ICBC disregards the Criminal Code of Canada, S252, by assuming the liability of 49,000 hit and run crimes, that kill 8, injure and cripple 2,200 peoples in the province of British Columbia every year, including the cases where the criminals are identified.
4. Since the court registry did not allow me to file a criminal legal action against ICBC, I was obliged to file three civil cases in the Supreme Court of British Columbia. Nevertheless, under the supervision of the Chief Justice Christopher E. Hinkson, all my legal actions were dismissed without any authority and the justices refused to sign their orders in compliance with the procedural norms.
5. Finally, the Chief Justice declared me "vexatious litigant" and obstructed my access to the Court Services. For any reasonable person, this is a perfect example of corruption in the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Now, my DUTY is to publicize this vitally important issue, in order to prevent harm to the Public. Nevertheless, the proper procedure, for me, is to notify all the institutions associated with the protection of our RIGHTS, before discharging my DUTY.

I believe, protecting the RIGHT to take criminal offenders to COURT falls under the responsibilities of BC Civil Liberties Association and you can do something about curbing the corruption in the Court Services, considering the fact that:

A justice who dismisses the legal action of a victim of crime, is more dangerous OFFENDER than the one who actually commits the CRIME.

Therefore, I would like to meet with you to discuss the possible actions – within your responsibilities - you may take to prevent the ongoing corruption in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and preventing hit and run crime.

Sincerely,

Ron Korkut

Dear Ron,

Thank you for your letter, and I'm sorry to hear about your experience. It sounds awful. Thank you for sharing your story with us.

Unfortunately as a small nonprofit, we aren't able to offer any sort of assistance to people dealing with the legal system – we can't help appealing judicial decisions, or offer guidance to those navigating the courts. We unfortunately don't have the capacity.

You can find a detailed outline of the (very limited) forms of direct assistance that we are able to offer on the Getting Help section of our website here: <https://bccla.org/getting-help/> As you can see, assistance with legal proceedings is not something we're able to offer.

I've enclosed a list of other organizations that offer different sorts of low-cost and free legal assistance around BC that you may find helpful.

Kind regards,

Dear Mr. Paterson,

Re. Alyssa Stryker's letter dated May 2, 2016

In response to my letter dated April 18, 2016, Mrs. Stryker send me letter referring me to other organizations for legal assistance.

Obviously, she misunderstood the reason why I contacted with you. I do NOT NEED any legal assistance. I presented to you "the Report of Corruption in the Supreme Court of British Columbia" and I asked you for a meeting to discuss the possible solutions to this vitally important PUBLIC INTEREST issue.

If you are not willing to meet with me regarding this issue, please sign the attached form letter. Thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
