Dear Mr. Jervis,

Re. Jury DUTY LC 7854, 100011250-V6Z2E1-BR01

Thanks for offering me jury DUTY in the Supreme Court of British Columbia. It is an Honour for me to take a part in the Justice Service for few days. Nevertheless, under the circumstances, it is not appropriate for me to attend any hearing in the Supreme Court of British Columbia; because, the Chief Justice, Christopher E. Hinkson declared me “vexatious litigant”. As you know, “vexatious litigant” is an “irrational person who files legal actions without any reason” and such a person is not suitable for jury DUTY.

For further information regarding the legal chicanery I have experienced in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, please refer to the attached documents.

If you do care about the security of the Public and counteract CORRUPTION; please, present the copies of “the Report of Corruption in the Supreme Court of British Columbia” to the media so that the members of the Public can make informed decisions, before using Court Services. Thanks for your efforts to protect the LAW and ORDER.

Sincerely,

Ron Korkut
